OBJECTIVE

1. As a people called by God, who shall constitute part of the Body of Christ, built and established upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone and
2. Because members of the Body, the Church of Jesus Christ are enjoined to assemble themselves together for worship, fellowship, counsel and instruction in the Word of God and the work of the ministry, and for the exercise of those spiritual gifts and offices provided for in New Testament church order;
3. It is resolved that the Society is a Pentecostal denomination comprised of churches, credential ministers, and associated agencies who voluntarily enter into its membership based on mutual agreements, shared objectives and beliefs as stated in our Tenets of Faith for the purpose of:
 - a) Encouraging and promoting the spread of the Full Gospel in Singapore and beyond;
 - b) Providing a basis of fellowship among Christian ministers of like precious faith;
 - c) Establishing and maintaining Bible Schools and other educational institutions;
 - d) Promoting medical and other humanitarian institutions and enterprises; and
 - e) Promoting the distribution of Bibles and other fundamental Christian Literature.

4. To recognise and promote scriptural methods and order of worship, unity, fellowship, work, and business for God and to disapprove unscriptural methods, doctrines and conduct.
5. To present a unified front that represents Pentecostal believers so there can be a united voice whenever and wherever needed and act in harmony in all matters of national scope which affect our religious life or violate our Tenets of Faith.
6. To gather for annual General Council meetings or such Meetings as required to formulate and state broad policies which will guide the Society and other related organisations of the Society.
7. To guard the Pentecostal testimony and promote establishment of self-propagating and self-supporting local assemblies of Pentecostal believers in Singapore.
8. To provide and conduct religious services of the Christian faith and public worship services.
9. To have the right to receive or remove members and to mediate or to arbitrate and to resolve issues involving the members as necessary.
10. To grant credentials, to those who have met the requirements as set forth in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society.
11. To have the right to own, hold in trust, use, sell, convey, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of, such property real or chattel, as may be necessary for the propagation of its work.
12. To have the right to establish and develop churches, departments and institutions as may be deemed necessary in order to fulfil the objectives of the Society.
